ABOUT THE THEATER

LATEA (Latin American Theater Experiment Associates) is a performing arts theater company that has been a Latino cultural staple for over 30 years. Through multicultural and multidisciplinary initiatives at The Clemente, which it helped establish, LATEA assiduously promotes Latino performing arts to Latinos and multicultural audiences and presents multicultural work to Latinos.

At our theater, New York based Latino / Latin American artists can create multidisciplinary work through co-productions in a collaborative environment.

Our mission encompasses producing experimental theater as well as co-producing dance, film, music and visual arts. Our principal aim is not only to expose undeserved Latino audiences to dynamic multidisciplinary performance/theater experiences but also to introduce broader audiences to work by emerging Latino/Latin American and other artists.
